

ABOUT HARDWOOD ARTISAN

Mark Stutzman has been transforming ideas into beautiful wood products for over 30 years, and in 2008, he opened the doors to Hardwood Artisan. Turning his passion into a career, Mark now offers his unique craftsmanship, fine wood products, and exceptional service to people wishing to give their home or office a unique touch.

Located in Friend, Nebraska, Hardwood Artisan has quickly made a name for itself and has established a solid reputation built on quality, trust, and affordability.

As a finishing carpenter, Mark's experience and knowledge in woodworking, carpentry, and the complexities of the housing industry has earned him rave reviews and long-term relationships with his customers.

"When we decided to build our home, we wanted a product that was going to last, and we wanted to buy locally. Mark was patient with us and gave us many different options of wood flooring to choose from, and in the end, the product was awesome. When you deal with Hardwood Artisan, you deal with the owner through the whole process with no middle-man, and to us, that is very important."

DEDICATED TO THE TRADE.

Hardwood Artisan helped us choose the perfect hickory wood to complete the rustic theme in our home. We appreciate how Mark and his staff followed through on our project to completion. We priced several other options for wood flooring, but Hardwood Artisan's combination of fair prices, quality products, and excellent service made the choice an easy one. We'll definitely recommend and use Hardwood Artisan in the future.
